In these meetings we expressed concern about the level of potential compensation being proposed for the CEO and CFO and the final proposal was half of the initially proposed level. This level, based on benchmarking and our knowledge of the business, is a level we said we would support. Contrary to Glass Lewis, we also view the Board as being responsive to shareholder views.

3	Arrangement Relating to Dual Class Share Structure and Creation of Founder Share Vote Note: We have not yet met with Tobias Lutke. However, everything we've read and heard supports our view that his role at Shopify is as important as any ceo is to a company in our portfolio, past and present. It seems the only real winners in this process are the advisors, who all collected fees throughout the process. We understand the dilemma with the current dual share class structure, but appreciate fully the concerns that Glass Lewis offered up.	Management	For	Against	Against
